

13:02:12 From Theresa Vee (she, her) : My True Spirit:

13:02:59 From Theresa Vee (she, her) : What I most want people to experience as a result of my work is Unconditional Love and the Divine Purpose of their Soul.

13:03:19 From J Kim Wright : What I want people to feel and experience as a result of my presence is:

- Connection to themselves, others, and Nature.
- Being inspired to action on what matters most to them.
- Freedom to design and pursue their paths, free from limiting beliefs, past traumas, and fear.

In my life, I specifically have chosen to work with lawyers who are key influencers in making such feelings and experiences available to others. I have been doing this work for more than 20 years and now it is time for me to be even more visible, to reach more people, and fully transform the legal profession. The gap, what to work on to go to the next level: my natural shyness, my not-good-enough, wanting to hide out, being perceived as an old fat woman who no longer has anything to contribute, wanting better hair.

13:04:07 From Glenda Mattinson : What I most want people to feel and experience as a result of my presence and efforts is.. To find peace and power in any situation by connecting fully and deeply to what is most important to them, developing a clear and effective plan of action - internal and/or external - that they feel confident and inspired by, taking action guided by their plan and their own unfolding wisdom and intuition, and reflecting and learning from their experience. So they can do it all over again. So their life continues to get better and better - for them and everyone they meet.

13:04:07 From Jenna Stoliker : The True Spirit of my work is to empower people who don't fit the mold to feel the quiet strength and power that comes from recognizing they belong in leadership. Relieving their own limiting narratives about what is and isn't acceptable, facing their deepest fears, acknowledging their soul's deepest yearning, anchoring their power in their own sense of wholeness (where you no longer have anything to prove), and recommitting to what gives their lives meaning, So they can stand strong and sovereign in any world, leaning on, rather than compromising, their true nature; connecting more deeply with themselves and others, and living their lives and their leadership as a sacred act.

13:04:11 From Katherine Cartwright Knodel : A deep connection to the magic and blessing in the ordinary. So that the ordinary is experienced as transportational. To be grounded in that.

13:04:34 From J Kim Wright : Actually not leaving the lawyer realm, just reaching more of them

13:05:24 From Theresa Vee (she, her) : The Gap: I need to leave one-on-one work in favor of one-to-many. No more excuses.

13:05:40 From Holly Emert : These are powerful. Thank you all for sharing.

- 13:06:42 From Katherine Cartwright Knodel : I'm finding that doing this over years, this true spirit of my work is becoming more refined and clear.
- 13:07:11 From SharonAnn Hamilton : I most want for others is to know with certainty their life matters to God, and to others they touch. And laughter and play are a part of our creative spirit. Living out loud from a position of strength and knowledge of self.
- 13:07:16 From Kathy Kane : My true spirit still rings true but what came out strongly - almost militantly - was what would happen if you don't experience the liberation to be self to step on a path of discovery and possibility to discover beauty of unpolished self, didn't create a multidimensional life... the disappointment, resentment, anger, dis-ease.
- 13:09:19 From SharonAnn Hamilton : It calls for being vulnerable.
- 13:12:05 From Katherine Cartwright Knodel : We teach what we need to learn!
- 13:12:45 From Theresa Vee (she, her) to Isabel(Privately) : The true wisdom was 3 computers ago...
- 13:12:52 From Theresa Vee (she, her) to Isabel(Privately) : I am going to have to start over
- 13:16:08 From Theresa Vee (she, her) : I mis-typed before. I said Divine Purpose. I meant Divine Perfection.
- 13:16:42 From Isabel : If I were to honor my accumulated wisdom more deeply, how would my work in the world change?
- How might my offers change?
 - If my wisdom is already embedded in my work, but more covertly, how could I be more OVERT about what I know and what I believe?
 - What do I know deeply in my bones is true, but I am not really stepping up and saying it?
 - What might it look like to really shout it out to the world?
 - What are practical changes I might make so people get quickly who I am and what my work is about?
 - If I trusted in the bones of my True Wisdom/life knowledge, what would I be inspired to offer that I don't currently offer?
 - What might I say differently about what I do if I were to trust in this accumulated wisdom?
- 13:19:15 From Theresa Vee (she, her) : This will require kawfee
